

Global Woman Gala Dinner

Saturday 14th July 2018

Sheraton New York Times Square Hotel

Featuring 'Inspiration Awards' to women in New York

The fabulous 'Global Woman' network teams up with the 'Inspiration Awards' to bring an inspirational Gala Dinner with awards presented to some of USA's most inspirational women.

Women like Dr. Jane Goodall, Dame Helen Mirren, Michelle Obama, Sandra Bullock, Christina Applegate and Kathryn Bigelow have been honored with an 'Inspiration Award'.

The event was set up over a decade ago, in London, to inspire our next generation of girls to focus on the right role models. The initiative wants to acknowledge women with stories of 'overcoming adversity' and those who conduct themselves in a manner that sets the right standards to girls.

Our next generation of girls will see that the feeling of 'self-worth', 'achievement' and 'success' can be obtained by studying, working hard and philanthropy.

Kathryn Bigelow

'I.A.S (Inspiration, Aspiration & Style)' Winner 2011

"I am truly humbled that at least a few of you considered me to be Inspirational, Aspirational, and Stylish. I promise to do my best to uphold this honor."

Christina Applegate

'Most Inspirational Celebrity' Winner

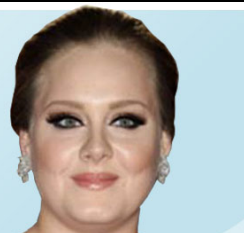

"I am so honored to have been given this award, our fight against cancer is not something we do as a decision but as a necessity."

Adele

'Next Generation Inspiration' Winner

"What a beautiful, moving award to win, thank you so much for this, to be recognised amongst so many wonderful, talented and inspiring women is very much an honour. I find it incredible humbling to win such an award."

Victoria Beckham

'Aspirational Celebrity' winner

"Congratulations to each and everyone of you here tonight, this is a celebration, not just of the winners, but the achievements of women everywhere x VB"
